27 Riverbank Road, Ramsey

27 Riverbank Road is a well-proportioned detached family home occupying a desirable position within this established and sought-after residential area of Ramsey.

The property offers spacious and versatile accommodation arranged over two floors, comprising three bedrooms, with the principal bedroom benefiting from an en-suite, together with a family bathroom and separate downstairs WC. The main living accommodation is centred around the kitchen, living and dining areas, creating a practical and sociable layout well suited to modern family life.

One of the property's standout features is the exceptional outside space. The home occupies a generous plot with a beautifully maintained garden providing an excellent degree of privacy and plenty of space for both entertaining and family enjoyment. The garden has been carefully maintained and offers a wonderful extension of the living space during the warmer months.

Further enhancing the property's appeal is the excellent parking provision, with a generous in-and-out driveway providing ample space for several vehicles, together with a substantial double garage offering valuable additional parking, storage or workshop space.

Whilst the property would benefit from some updating and modernisation, it offers an excellent opportunity for a purchaser to personalise and improve the accommodation to their own taste and requirements. The combination of the detached position, well-balanced three-bedroom accommodation, en-suite facilities, generous parking, double garage and particularly attractive garden makes this an appealing family home with considerable potential.

Situated within easy reach of Ramsey's town centre and its wide range of amenities, schools, shops and local facilities, 27 Riverbank Road represents an excellent opportunity to acquire a substantial detached home in an established residential setting.
