General Information

The property is situated close to the centre of this pleasant Suffolk village, which features a shop/post office, primary school, public house and church. The well served village of Ixworth is located approximately 5 miles away and the historic market town of Bury St Edmunds is approximately 13 miles away. The thriving and picturesque market town of Diss, with its main line rail link to London, is just 11 miles to the North.

We loved everything about this house and are confident you will too. In addition to being extended the house has also been well maintained and thoughtfully modernised - making it perfect for family living. The house has NO UPWARD CHAIN, so it could be yours to live in very soon!

On the ground floor: The entrance hall gives access to the bathroom and kitchen. The bathroom has been refitted with a classic white suite with contemporary tiling. The kitchen provides ample cupboards and worktop surfaces alongside ample appliance space. There is an integrated fridge and a built-in oven, hob and cooker hood.

Leading off the kitchen, is a very spacious utility room which includes more cupboards and worktops, further appliance space and an oil fired boiler serving the central heating. A door leads into the gardens.

The sitting/dining room has a dual aspect and is of a very generous size. There is a feature fireplace and lots of space for a good sized dining table.

On the first floor: The landing area leads to all 3 bedrooms.

Outside
The property is set back well from the road with the front gardens being laid mainly to lawn and bordered by hedging. A gravelled driveway leads up to the large single garage. The rear gardens enjoy a good degree of privacy and are bordered by mature hedging and trees, they are laid extensively to lawn and include a large patio area.
