An opening leads into an adjoining breakfast area - the perfect spot for your morning coffee while enjoying views of the gardens. A side porch provides access to both the gardens and the garage.

Outside

The gardens to the front of the bungalow are of open-plan design and include an extensive area of lawn with planted shrubs. A driveway provides ample parking and leads up to the single garage which has an electric roller-style door and light and power connected.

The rear gardens afford a good degree of privacy and seclusion and are again laid to lawn with a patio area and planted shrub and flower borders. A gate provides access to the front garden and here is the benefit of a timber shed and summer house.
