- 3 Bedrooms, shower room, attic room/conversion potential
- Oil fired central heating, uPVC sealed unit glazing. CHAIN FREE
- Approaching 0.5 of an acre, double garage & extensive parking

Guide Price £450,000

General Information

The property occupies a superb semi-rural location, bordering open countryside and on the edge of the popular and picturesque Suffolk village of Pakenham. Pakenham has a church, village hall, post office and public house/restaurant. The much larger village of Ixworth is around 0.5 miles away and offers a much wider range of amenities. The historic market town of Bury St. Edmunds is around 7 miles away and provides an excellent range of educational, recreational and shopping facilities.

This individual detached bungalow was constructed in 1962 and has been owned since then by the same family. The property was extended some years ago and improvements have included the replacement of the uPVC sealed unit glazing and the upgrading of the oil fired central heating system.

Whilst the property has been well maintained it is now a little dated and therefore offers great potential. In our opinion, the bungalow lends itself to being further extended, either into the loft space or to the side and rear (if required and subject of course to consent).

The accommodation includes a spacious kitchen/diner which leads into a triple aspect family room. There is a separate sitting room and 3 good sized bedrooms. There is also an attic room which is accessed via a loft ladder from the inner hallway.

Outside

The property occupies a slightly elevated position, set back from the road and is approached over a driveway providing ample parking. There are 2 single garages with a useful store /workshop to the rear. The main gardens are formed to the side of the bungalow and are subdivided into 2 main areas - 1 which includes a small orchard and an area for wildflowers and the other which includes a large area of lawn, summer house and ornamental pond. The gardens are bordered by mature hedging which offer a very good degree of privacy.

Agents Note: Whilst the property is being sold CHAIN FREE it is subject to Probate which has been applied for but as yet not granted.
