General Information

Thurston is a thriving village with an extensive range of amenities on offer including, 2 schools, village stores, post office, 2 public houses, garage, vets, nursery and its own railway station. A regular bus route heads to the nearby market town of Bury St. Edmunds where you will find a full range of shopping, educational and leisure facilities.

From the moment you step inside this charming cottage, you will know that this is a much-loved home and has clearly been very well maintained. The sitting room has a stable door and central feature fireplace with an inset multi-fuel/wood burner. An inner hallway, with staircase off, gives access to the shower room and superb kitchen/diner. The kitchen area includes ample cupboards, worktop surfaces and appliance space. The dining area provides space for a good-sized table and has double doors leading out into the garden room.

On the first floor are 2 double bedrooms. Bedroom 1 has a fitted wardrobe and an original fireplace. Bedroom 2 has full with wardrobes to 1 wall providing shelving and hanging space.

Outside

The property is set back and well screened from the road and is laid to lawn with mature hedging. The rear gardens are fence enclosed and are again laid to lawn with planted shrub and flower borders. Immediately behind the cottage is a lovely patio area, providing the perfect place to relax with a glass of wine. To the far end of the garden is a shed/potting shed which in turn gives access to a large workshop/small garage.

A driveway located at the end of the row of cottages gives access to the rear of the property where there is a large cart lodge providing ample parking and further storage.

Directions

From Bury St. Edmunds proceed East along the A14 towards Ipswich. Take the exit for Thurston and Beyton (Junction 46) and at the bottom of the slip road turn left onto Thurston Road. Take the next right-hand turning towards The Planche and follow this road around the bend to the left leading into Church Road. The property will eventually be found on the right-hand side before the railway bridge.
