General Information

The property occupies a pleasant non-estate village setting, close to open countryside and within easy reach of local amenities. Great Barton is a much sought after village and offers an extensive range of local amenities including a superb primary school, general store, church, public house and village hall.

The chalet is also within easy reach of Thurston which has a wider range of facilities including a railway station. The historic market town of Bury St. Edmunds is less than 2.5 miles away (10 minutes in the car) and offers excellent shopping, recreational and educational facilities.

'Pantiles' is thought to have been built in the 1960's and, as is typical of homes of this era, provides well-proportioned rooms with lots of natural light. Whilst the property has been extremely well maintained by the present owners, potential now exists for some updating.

The property was originally designed as a bungalow, with the attic rooms being added a few years after. The existing layout provides the option to have up to 6 bedrooms or 3/4 bedrooms with 3/4 reception rooms.

The chalet, which benefits from mains gas fired central heating and uPVC sealed unit glazing, provides the potential for further extension (subject to consent). So, whether you just want to move straight in or have been hoping to create your own 'Grand Design' this superb home is well worth viewing.

Outside
The property is set back well from the road behind mature hedging and is approached through a 5 bar gate. Laid extensively to lawn the gardens include a gravelled area providing parking and turning for a number of cars and access to the single garage.

The rear gardens afford an excellent degree of privacy and seclusion and are of a very generous size. The gardens include a wide range of trees, mature shrubs, large lawn and shaped flower borders. There is a large patio and sizable timber garden shed.

Directions
From Bury St. Edmunds proceed north along the A143 Diss Road. On reaching Great Barton continue past the garage and on reaching the Bunbury Arms public house, turn right at the crossroads onto the Thurston Road. Continue past Pakenham Road and head towards Thurston when the property will eventually be seen on the left-hand side (look out for the black gates and fencing).
