Central entrance hall with access to the cloakroom, fit with wc and sink. The large lounge overlooks the front of the property which supports attractive views over Rembrandt Gardens. A gas fireplace provides a charming focal point to the room. The potential to reconfigure this space as an open-plan kitchen-diner whilst still retaining a large living room would create a contemporary feel.

The kitchen is fit with a choice of low and eye level storage amongst an integrated oven, gas hob and extractor fan, with freestanding space for a washing machine / dishwasher and fridge-freezer. Additional plumbing facilities can be found in the garage for further appliances.

The dual aspect dining room is bathed in natural light, whilst supporting access to the side of the property.

Complete with an abundance of fitted storage, the principle bedroom enjoys views over the rear garden, whilst the second double bedroom can be found parallel, also supporting fitted wardrobes. Bedroom three, albeit the smallest, is a great multi-purpose space, whether this be a single bedroom, office or dressing room with access into the sizeable sunroom / conservatory. With access to the rear of the garage and garden, whilst supporting power and heating, this space can be used all year round to enjoy views of the private garden.

The recently converted wet-room, fitted with wc, basin, shower and heated towel rail completes the interior of the property.

Outside:

The private rear garden is mostly laid to lawn with scope to add a raised decking area to the rear. Side access leading to the front of property provides additional space to utilise whether this be for potted greenery, storage or space to extend.

The front of the property offers a generous, mostly laid to lawn garden with driveway leading to the single garage complete with power and plumbing facilities.
