General Information

Torridon occupies a lovely setting towards the edge of this pretty Suffolk village. Bardwell has a post office, two public houses, a primary school and a fine church. The property is located approximately 1½ miles from the well-served villages of Ixworth and Stanton, which both offer further schooling and a good selection of local shops. The historic market town of Bury St Edmunds is located only 10 miles from the property, which offers a wider range of shopping, leisure and cultural facilities as well as access to the A14, providing links to Cambridge, Ipswich and London/Stansted Airport via the A11/M11.

As previously mentioned, the property is somewhat larger than you might expect – as can be seen from the floor plan. The house offers versatile accommodation, making it ideal for anyone looking for flexible living space. The property was built in the 1970s and has been owned for many years by the present vendors. In recent years the property has been much improved and updated and now offers beautifully appointed accommodation with well-proportioned rooms and lots of natural light.

In addition to mains gas-fired central heating and uPVC sealed unit glazing the property now benefits from solar panels which have significantly reduced electricity costs.

On the ground floor: The entrance hall leads into the dual-aspect sitting room which has a feature fireplace, sliding doors to a side patio area and large picture windows which overlook the rear gardens. There is a separate dining room, a fully fitted kitchen/breakfast room with integrated appliances and an adjoining utility room. There is a guest bedroom with en suite shower room and a further family bathroom.

On the first floor: The landing area leads to a study, 3 further bedrooms, a walk-in cupboard and an additional shower room.

Outside

The property is set back quite a distance from the road, with a long driveway providing parking and turning for a number of cars and ample space to park a caravan or motorhome. The remainder of the front gardens are laid mainly to lawn and are planted with mature trees. A further area of driveway leads up to the large garage which benefits from having power and light connected and a remote controlled door.

The rear gardens are a superb feature of the property and are of a very generous size. Laid extensively to lawn and planted with an impressive variety of specimen shrubs and trees, the gardens include a greenhouse, ornamental pond and various sheds. There is a large patio terrace and a further side patio area, each providing the perfect space to relax and entertain.
