General Information

Situated off Cotton Lane, the property stands close to the beautiful Abbey gardens and the town centre which offers an extensive range of shopping facilities, including the Arc Shopping Centre. There are also excellent educational, recreational and cultural facilities and for those needing to commute there is convenient access to the A14, which provides links to Cambridge, Ipswich and London / Stanstead Airport via the A11/M11.

This beautifully appointed townhouse is understood to have been built in 2005 by the much-respected builder: Hopkins Homes. The property has been owned since new by the present vendor – testament if needed as to what a lovely house it is to live in. In recent years the house has been updated with a refitted kitchen, boiler and part uPVC replacement windows.

The house offers a versatile range of accommodation and has the benefit of sealed unit glazing and gas fired central heating. We are confident that the house will have wide appeal and would be equally suited to families, couples or indeed anyone looking for a sound investment purchase.

On the ground floor: the spacious entrance hall with large cupboard and cloakroom off, leads to the well proportioned sitting room with feature fireplace. Double doors open up into the spacious kitchen/dining room which has an integrated electric oven, gas hob and hood. There is an extensive range of cupboards and worktop surfaces together with an integrated fridge freezer, washing machine and dishwasher. The dining area has double doors which open into the gardens.

On the first floor are 2 double bedrooms, each with built in wardrobes. The family bathroom also has a separate shower. The second floor is made up of the master bedroom, an en suite shower room and large walk in storage/airing cupboard.

Outside

The gardens to the rear of the property enjoy a sunny aspect and afford an excellent degree of privacy. Laid to lawn, with a sheltered patio area, the gardens have planted shrub and flower borders and a useful garden shed. A rear pedestrian access leads to the single garage which has light and power connected and a parking space to the front.

Directions

Proceed from Angel Hill across the traffic lights into Mustow Street and turn left into Cotton Lane. Continue to follow the road which bears to the right and eventually leads into Barwell Road. Follow the road for a short distance and turn left onto Boughton Road, the property will then be seen on the left hand side.
