General Information

The property occupies a pleasant cul de sac setting within easy reach of all local facilities. Barrow is a particularly popular village which boasts a number of local amenities including 2 village shops, public house, restaurant, primary school, Church and village hall. The village is conveniently situated approximately 5 miles to the west of Bury St. Edmunds and has fast access to the A14, leading to Ipswich, Cambridge and London via the A11/M11.

As previously mentioned, the property was constructed in 2015 by Hopkins Homes who are renowned for building quality homes of character. The house is served by dual zone oil-fired central heating and uPVC sealed unit glazing. It has an excellent energy efficiency rating – something we are all mindful of these days

On the ground floor: The entrance hall with cloakroom off, leads to the sitting room and kitchen/diner. The sitting room has a dual aspect with French doors to the garden and feature panelling to 1 wall.

The kitchen/diner is again dual aspect with a Karndean floor, and ample space for a good sized dining table. The kitchen includes a range of built-in cupboards, worktop surfaces, a fitted hob, hood, double oven and integrated dishwasher. Leading off the kitchen is a utility area with a door to the gardens, built-in cupboard and an integrated washer dryer.

On the first floor: The landing leads to all 3 bedrooms and the family bathroom. The master bedroom includes an en suite shower room and fitted wardrobes, bedroom 2 also includes fitted wardrobes.

Outside

The gardens to the front of the house are laid to lawn bordered by a low hedge. The driveway provides ample parking and gives access to the garage which has light and power connected.

A pathway leads to the enclosed rear gardens which enjoy a sunny aspect and are again laid to lawn with and include a sheltered patio area, potting shed and raised borders. The gardens include a superb timber framed cabin/studio which is fully insulated with light, power and internet connected. The cabin/studio will remain and is included in the sale price.
