Continue into the lounge area, which is season ready with its feature fireplace for cozy evenings and air conditioning units to take the heat off the summer months, the lounge opens up into the dining area and separate kitchen. Both have doors leading out to the rear garden space and the garage which has been fully converted to provide a spacious bedroom but would lend itself to many uses such as a play room, home office or hobby room.

The open plan staircase leads up to the three double sized bedrooms (two of which also boast an air conditioning unit) and the spacious family bathroom completing the internal accommodation.
