A door leads through to the garage to the front. There are two staircases leading to the first floor, with two landing spaces leading to three double bedrooms and a through room which is currently utilised as an office but could make a further bedroom. There is both a shower room and a family bathroom boasting a freestanding, roll top bath. Stairs lead up to the loft room, which the vendor use as a fourth bedroom, with an en-suite shower room. The property retains many character features and is very well presented throughout, served by gas central heating and double glazing.
