The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

A rare opportunity to purchase a charming whitewashed cottage on St Annes Head, Dale. The cottages were purpose-built in approximately 1860 to house the lighthouse keepers and their families, allowing them to safely guide the ships into Milford Haven. This beautiful cottage exudes history and original charm from all corners, and is being offered for sale with no onward chain! Currently run as an established holiday let, the property would make an excellent investment, or offers a lifestyle opportunity for someone who is looking for something a little different from their home!

The layout of the property briefly comprises of an entrance door with boot room, a kitchen served by an oil fired Rayburn, two reception rooms which are both equipped with cosy wood-burning stoves. There is a downstairs bathroom, shower and utility, along with a feature 'nook/viewpoint' room. On the first floor the landing space gives access to two double bedrooms. Character features are in abundance including exposed beams and stonework, original doors, and spectacular sea views from almost every aspect both internally and externally! The views span as far as the headlands in the South of the county, and the busy channel sees regular passings of the Irish Ferry and the tankers entering and exiting the haven.

Externally, there is a shared driveway to the front of the cottage giving plenty of parking. Adjacent to the driveway is a lawned garden with storage unit, and direct access to the coastal paths.

This truly is a rare find and not one to be missed! Viewings are strongly recommended!

St Anne's head is located approximately 2 miles from the coastal village of Dale. Dale is situated on the south-eastern tip of Pembrokeshire and is a great location for a range of water sports with sheltered conditions providing an excellent location for business. The village has a pub, several
