Situated on the popular Ramsey Drive in Milford Haven, this detached bungalow occupies a pleasant cul-de-sac position, benefiting from minimal passing traffic while remaining conveniently located close to local amenities, including the secondary school. Well presented throughout, the property offers versatile accommodation suited to a range of buyers.

The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance porch and hallway leading into an open plan living space incorporating the kitchen, dining area and lounge. There are three bedrooms, including two doubles, together with two modern shower rooms, a useful utility room and a conservatory opening onto a decked seating area overlooking the rear garden.

The property further benefits from gas central heating and double glazing throughout.

Externally, the property offers a driveway providing parking for two to three vehicles together with a garage ideal for storage or workshop space. The rear garden has been beautifully maintained, while decorative borders to the front add to the property's kerb appeal. To the side, a variety of fruit trees provide an attractive and productive outdoor space.

Offered to the market with motivated sellers, this appealing bungalow presents an excellent opportunity in a sought-after residential location.

Milford Haven has the largest port in Wales and the third-largest port in the United Kingdom. It also has a popular Marina with accompanying Restaurant, Wine Bar, and boutique shops. The town itself has a historic late 18th and 19th centuries core based on a grid pattern, located between Hubberston Pill and Castle Pill and extending inland for 500 metres. Milford Haven's 20th-century expansion took in several other settlements. Hakin and Hubberston are older and situated to the west of the main town.

DIRECTIONS
