The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

43 Hayston Avenue is a characterful detached bungalow set in an elevated position, enjoying direct views of the ever changing Milford Haven Waterway. This property dates back to 1937 and has only had two owners, retaining the character features and charm of the period.

The layout of the property briefly comprises of an entrance vestibule leading through to the hallway, which gives access to the living room/diner with a bay window and tiled fireplace housing an electric fire. The kitchen is fitted with a range of base and eye level units and has space for a breakfast table, leading through to a lean-to storage area to the rear. Bedroom one has a bay window to the front, whilst bedroom two boasts a handmade wardrobe and a vanity unit edged with mahogany from the former bank in town. A pull down ladder leads to a converted loft room, with a dormer window and ample storage and access to the eaves. The property is served by a gas boiler.

Externally, a wheelchair friendly ramp leads up to the front of the property, which is laid to lawn and positioned to take full advantage of the fantastic views. There is pedestrian side access to the rear garden, which is tiered and laid to patio for easy maintenance, with fruitful blackberry bushes. The garage leads out onto the back lane which has vehicular access and space to park a car in front of the garage doors.

With no onward chain, viewing is highly recommended!

Milford Haven has the largest port in Wales, and the third largest port in the United Kingdom. It also has a popular Marina with accompanying Restaurant, Wine Bar, and boutique shops. The town itself has a historic late 18th and 19th centuries core based on a grid pattern, located between Hubberston Pill and Castle Pill and extending inland for 500 metres. Milford Haven's 20th century expansion took in several other settlements. Hakin and Hubberston are older, and situated to the west of the main town. The town also benefits from a variety of shops and service
