The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

Nestled in the sought-after Grove neighbourhood on Pembroke's south-eastern side, Lowless Close is a cul-de-sac set on elevated ground with outlooks over the historic town and beyond. Number 14 is a generously sized detached home with spacious rooms throughout, perfectly suited to growing families or anyone seeking a flexible living space.

The property holds excellent potential to become a family residence. The layout comprises an entrance hall and ground-floor cloakroom; a 6.78-metre living/dining room with patio doors opening straight onto the rear garden; four well-proportioned bedrooms; and a modern wet room.

The setting is ideal: within easy reach of the area's primary school and the picturesque Commons Parkland, and just a short stroll into Pembroke town centre—home to the famous Norman Castle, lively main shopping street, hotels, pubs, restaurants, secondary schooling, and excellent transport links by bus and rail.

Externally, the property offers off-road parking for two cars via a front driveway, plus a side pathway leading to the rear gardens. The front itself is neatly laid to lawn with established shrubs and planting. At the back lies a substantial, secluded garden featuring a paved patio, ample lawn space, an ornamental gravel section with timber pergola — all framed by mature plants and a lovely tree-lined boundary that provides abundant privacy.

DIRECTIONS

Leave the office and head east along Main Street through the town centre. Continue up Main Street; as you reach the east end, bear right down Well Hill. Take the next turning on your left — just before the primary school — into The Grove. Proceed all the way up Grove Hill to the top of the rise. At the top, bear right into Grove Way, then take the immediate first right into Lowless Close. No. 14 is a short distance along on your right-hand side.
