The kitchen continues the character of the property, fitted with solid oak units and complemented by a traditional Belfast sink.

Upstairs, the landing provides access to three bedrooms and the family bathroom, where a freestanding roll-top bath adds another period-inspired feature to the home.

Externally, the rear garden offers a patio seating area, providing space for outdoor dining and seating, which leads through to a lawned garden. A walled frontage with pedestrian entrance gate creates separation between the property and the pavement.

Further benefits include gas central heating and UPVC double glazing, on street parking is available to the front of the property.
