The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

Ty Banc is set in the very heart of St Davids, in Britain's smallest city, where cafes, independent shops and restaurants are just moments from the front door and the historic St Davids Cathedral is within easy reach. Beyond the city, the beaches, coastal walks and scenery of the Pembrokeshire Coast are all part of the lifestyle that comes with this location.

Accessed via its own private entrance from New street, this attractive first-floor apartment combines character with a light, contemporary interior. A hallway connects the accommodation, with the living room forming an inviting focal point of the property. Beautiful sash windows bring plenty of natural light into the room, while the fireplace and alcove shelving add character and provide a comfortable setting in which to relax after a day exploring the coast or city.

The kitchen is fitted with a range of Shaker-style units, oak work surfaces and tiled splashbacks, with space for dining. The layout provides three double bedrooms, giving flexibility for family, guests or holiday accommodation. The principal bedroom benefits from its own en-suite shower room, while a separate bathroom serves the remaining bedrooms. The neutral decor, sash-style windows and carefully presented interior create a light and welcoming feel throughout. It further benefits from gas central heating and double glazing and a new roof installed in 2024. Externally, a wooden pedestrian door leads to a private courtyard garden/sitting area with a composite decked patio providing a pleasant outside space to relax in a central setting.

Ty Banc is currently operated as a holiday let and is available with the option to purchase as an established holiday-let business, offering an opportunity for a buyer looking to continue its existing use. Equally, its accommodation and central location give it the flexibility to be considered as a permanent home, second home or investment property. A fantastic property that offers more than just accommodation
