The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

A delightful period home set in the heart of the historic Cathedral City of St Davids, this well-presented property sits just moments from local amenities. Offering charm, comfort, and character throughout — and with the added benefit of no onward chain — it would make an ideal family residence or holiday retreat.

The accommodation comprises a welcoming entrance hall, a cosy lounge, and a spacious kitchen/diner featuring a partial glass roof that floods the space with natural light. A downstairs WC and wet room complete the ground floor.

On the first floor where you will find two double bedrooms and a family bathroom. The rear bedroom enjoys a balcony with superb views across the rooftops towards the Cathedral and the bay, while the front bedroom features double-glazed sash windows and an attractive cast-iron fireplace.

A second staircase leads to the master bedroom with a walk-in wardrobe, en-suite shower room, and a Velux balcony window offering breathtaking views of St Davids Cathedral and far-reaching sea vistas.

The property benefits from handmade sash windows to the front, double-glazed windows to the rear, and gas-fired central heating and hot water.

Externally, there is on-street parking to the front and an easily maintained courtyard garden to the rear. A side lane provides convenient pedestrian access to the garden.

Viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the property's superb position and its beautifully presented interior.

St Davids is a popular Cathedral City which is situated on the North Pembrokeshire Coastline some fifteen miles or so North West of the County and Market Town of

DIRECTIONS

DIRECTIONS: From the Haverfordwest take the A487 for 16 miles to St Davids. Enter the city centre and follow the road round onto Nun Street, then take the right hand turn into New Street. Continue on this road, past CK's supermarket and the house can be found approximately 200 yards on the right hand side. ///dreading.milder.jaundice
