The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

The Old Coach House is a charming former honey extraction workshop/ unit, quietly positioned along a picturesque single-track lane beside the church in the sought-after village of Lower Freystrop. Offered to the market with no onward chain, this unique property presents an excellent opportunity for those seeking secure and versatile premises for a business, workshop, or specialist hobby.

Accessed via gated entrance, the property benefits from a gravelled courtyard providing off-road parking, together with a useful storage shed and access to a sloping garden area. The building is accessed via the old coach door, comprises a spacious workshop, front and rear stable doors, fitted kitchen facilities, electric underfloor heating with floor drainage for easy maintenance, and a pull down ladder to a mezzanine level offering valuable additional storage. Solar panels also give the added benefit of low energy bills.

Converted in 2010, and previously operated as a honey-making workshop and beekeeping facility, The Old Coach House is well suited to a variety of commercial or workshop uses (subject to any necessary consents), making it an appealing prospect for entrepreneurs, craftspeople, or those in search of secure and adaptable workspace in a peaceful village setting.

Freystrop is a rural village set in the National Park, 3.5 miles to the south of Haverfordwest, close to the beautiful Cleddau River, and within easy travelling distance of Milford Haven and Haverfordwest. The nearby village of Hook has a village shop, primary school, and sports club, whilst the wider amenities of Haverfordwest include secondary schools, sixth form college, hospital, mainline train station, supermarkets etc. The property is also only a short distance from local beaches of Little Haven, Broad Haven and Marloes Sands.
