The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

Situated at the bottom of a quiet street with no-through road in the popular harbour town of Burry Port we here at West Wales Properties are eager to show you what's hiding behind this little red door! This well-presented, semi-detached property has been a loved family home for nearly 40 years and is now looking for new owners to enjoy it as much as they have. Offering a glimpse of a coastal view the front elevation and a view of the beautiful open field views to the rear this property truly is a family favourite. Call us today on 01554 759655 to arrange a viewing. EPC RATING D. COUNCIL TAX BAND B.

Accommodation comprises : Hallway, two reception rooms with beautiful open fireplaces, kitchen, landing, modern family bathroom with a separate cloakroom, two double bedrooms and a good-size single plus loft room. Externally, enclosed frontage with vegetable/fruit patch. To the rear, a well-presented landscaped garden which offers space and relaxation. Patio area leading up to the remainder of the garden which is mainly laid to lawn with a mixture of seating areas, fruit trees and a vegetable patch and three outbuildings and outhouse. Also something that is very rarely seen these days, the garden has an old air-raid shelter at the bottom of the garden!

Burry Port is a small harbour town on the outskirts of Llanelli that offers all local amenities and excellent transport links. Burry Port is well-known to people as the location where Amelia Earhart landed, becoming the first woman to fly across the Atlantic Ocean. The Pembrey Burrows dune and wetland system, home to a country park and the Cefn Sidan sands lie nearby. In recent years, the harbour has been redeveloped and offers a view of the stunning Gower Coastline opposite.
