We Say...

Enjoying a secluded setting, this exceptional property presents a rare chance to acquire a lifestyle home in the heart of the Carmarthenshire countryside. Set within approximately 6.5 acres of established woodland gardens, the unique residence includes a man-made lake ideal for coarse fishing, currently stocked with tench and carp. The grounds also feature several ponds, mature and young fruit trees, and a variety of established deciduous trees scattered throughout.

The property combines a charming original stone cottage with a substantial modern extension. The cottage offers three bedrooms, a bathroom lounge, sitting room and utility room, while the extension provides three further bedrooms, a bathroom and an impressive open-plan living, dining and kitchen space.

The kitchen features shaker-style wall and base units, a central island, Belfast sink and integrated appliances. Triple-aspect glazing in the lounge & dining area fills the space with natural light, creating an ideal setting for entertaining. Doors open onto a decked seating area, seamlessly blending indoor and outdoor living.

A hallway leads to one of the six bedrooms, ideal as a home office or gym, before continuing into the original part of the house, where exposed beams and feature fireplaces add character. This section also includes a family bathroom and utility room, with two double bedrooms and a single bedroom upstairs.

The first floor of the extension offers two additional double bedrooms with Velux windows and useful eaves storage, along with an en-suite bathroom complete with a roll-top freestanding bath and separate shower enclosure.

The versatile accommodation is well suited to multi-generational living, annexe potential, holiday letting or space for family life.

A patio garden provides an ideal area for outdoor entertaining, leading to a lawned area overlooking the grounds. There is also a wraparound raised decking with metal balustrade.

Within the grounds are various trails through the woodlands that lead to secluded spots amongst the trees and to the man-made lake where you can fish or simply sit and relax. There is also a wooden "lookout" tower sitting in an elevated position overlooking the lake.

The property enjoys ample driveway parking and generous grounds that provide privacy, tranquillity, and endless possibilities for outdoor enjoyment or further landscaping. The accommodation itself is versatile, with the potential to create a self-contained annexe or be developed further, subject to any necessary planning consents – ideal for multigenerational living, guest accommodation, or income potential.

Located on the periphery of the boundary are the ruins of a former chapel.
