The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

Set in the heart of the ever-popular market town of Llandeilo, this period residence enjoys panoramic views across the Towy Valley, the river below, and the hills beyond. Alongside its beautifully presented interior, the property includes a 17-square-metre studio—perfect for working from home, creative use, or simply relaxing while taking in the exceptional scenery.

The home is rich in character, with a welcoming living area featuring quarry tiles, a decorative stone fireplace, and a wood burner. This leads into an open kitchen and dining space, recently upgraded in May 2023. A skylight overhead and double-glazed doors and windows bring in plenty of natural light.

Adjoining the kitchen, the breakfast room offers a homely setting for informal dining, with panelled walls, and a breakfast bar. There's also a practical utility area with a Worcester combi boiler and washing machine. The property also benefits from a basement level currently being used as a workshop.

Upstairs are three well-presented bedrooms, all flooded with natural light through double-glazed windows. The bathroom is tastefully designed with a bathtub and mixer shower, WC, washbasin with mixer tap, part-tiled walls, and a floor-to-ceiling cupboard providing ample storage.

Outside, a shared access road leads to off-road parking. Gated entry to the side provides access to the rear garden, where steps lead to a raised patio area and the impressive Summer House/Studio. Fully insulated, with electricity connected, this beautifully finished space features pine flooring, tongue-and-groove walls, and French doors opening onto a decked terrace—perfect for enjoying the uninterrupted views. This versatile space would also make a great safe playing area for children.
