The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

A charming and beautifully presented semi-detached two-bedroom coastal home, ideally situated in the heart of the sought-after village of Ferryside. Having been significantly improved by the current vendors, the property is now offered in excellent decorative order throughout, presenting an ideal opportunity for those seeking a coastal retreat or permanent residence in a peaceful yet well-connected location.

The property enjoys stunning estuary views and is just a short walk from the shoreline and the picturesque Millennium Coastal Path, perfect for scenic walks and outdoor pursuits. Ferryside itself offers a range of local amenities, including a cafe, shop, and public house, along with a train station providing excellent links to Cardiff, Milford Haven, Pembroke Dock, and Fishguard.

Internally, the accommodation is thoughtfully arranged with a welcoming lounge that features a fireplace and benefits from dual aspect windows to the front, allowing plenty of natural light and making the most of the coastal outlook. From here, there is access to a staircase leading to the first floor, along with access to the inner hallway.

The kitchen is fitted with a range of base and eye-level units and a breakfast bar, perfect for morning coffee or entertaining. A cloakroom/WC is also conveniently located on the ground floor, fitted with a WC and a wash hand basin.

To the first floor, there are two double bedrooms, both enjoying delightful estuary views towards Llansteffan. The principal bedroom benefits from built-in wardrobes, providing useful storage. The first floor accommodation is completed by a shower room.

Externally, the property enjoys a charming front forecourt with gated access and a dwarf wall, adding to its appeal. This is a fantastic opportunity to acquire a beautifully presented coastal home in a desirable village location, and early viewing is highly recommended.
