The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

A fantastic opportunity to purchase this two-bedroom terraced property in the sought-after location of Carmarthen Town, close to amenities with good transport links.

The house would appeal to so many whether you are looking for an investment, taking the first steps on the housing ladder or looking for a property with local amenities within walking distance, this property has it all. Viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the finish and location of this wonderful house.

The property briefly comprises; a living room, kitchen, which was installed in 2023 with an open-plan diner with a door leading out to the rear garden. Upstairs offers two bedrooms and a family bathroom which was also installed in 2023.

Externally the property offers a rear garden with a patio area which would be a perfect place for alfresco dining. Then has steps leading up to the lawned area and further seating area., offering a wonderful opportunity to create your own perfect spot to relax or have some beautiful flower beds.

The County town of Carmarthen lays claim to being the oldest town in Wales, boasting a strong Roman heritage dating back to AD c75. Situated on the River Towy eight miles north of its mouth at Carmarthen Bay, the town is the location of the headquarters of Dyfed Powys Police, the Carmarthen Campus of The University of Wales, Trinity Saint David and The West Wales General Hospital. The town is well served by numerous primary schools and two secondary schools offering education through the medium of Welsh and English. The former cattle market in the heart of the town has undergone massive regeneration and the new shopping centre now houses most high street names, a Cinema complex, restaurants, bars and a multi-storey car park. The town is also served by direct trains from West Wales to London.
