We Say...

Set in the heart of the Welsh countryside with woodland views to the front and fields and paddocks to the rear, this impressive four-bedroom detached property sits within approximately 5.8 acres and offers a rare combination of character, space, and versatility.

The accommodation is well suited to family living, featuring three reception rooms, a separate office/work space, and an attached annexe comprising a kitchen/diner, reception room, bedroom, and conservatory, ideal for multi-generational living, guest accommodation, or potential additional income.

The main house is full of character, with exposed stone walls, beamed ceilings, and wood-burning stoves creating a warm and inviting atmosphere within the principal reception rooms. At the heart of the home is a spacious kitchen/diner designed for both everyday living and entertaining, while the extensive utility area wraps around the rear of the property, providing excellent storage space including a pantry. The master bedroom benefits from an en-suite, with further advantages including oil-fired heating and solar panels.

Outside, the property continues to impress with paddocks and a range of useful outbuildings, making it an excellent choice for those seeking an equestrian property or smallholding lifestyle. Offering privacy, countryside surroundings, and flexible accommodation, this is a property that balances rural living with practicality and comfort.

Stay on the B4298 for several miles, including a right turn to remain on the same road. Continue along the rural lanes, taking a slight right, then a right turn, followed by a left turn and another left after about a mile. Continue for roughly 3 miles and turn right again.
