NO ONWARD CHAIN

A brilliant opportunity to acquire a beautifully presented semi-detached house, located on the edge of the historic market town of Carmarthen. Situated on the residential cul-de-sac of Llwyn Meredith, the property boasts far-reaching countryside views to the rear. With its neutral modern decor throughout, the property would make a brilliant investment or a great first-time buy. Viewing is highly recommended!

The ground floor accommodation comprises: an entrance hall, a living room with under-stairs storage and the contemporary kitchen/diner. The kitchen is fitted with gloss units and a range of integrated appliances. French patio doors also open out onto the garden, ideal for entertaining family and friends. Upstairs boasts those gorgeous country views and accommodates a family bathroom and two double bedrooms. The property benefits from UPVC double glazing and has gas central heating.

Externally, there is driveway parking for approximately three cars, which also provides easy access to the rear. The garden which is laid out lawn, provides a great space for those with pets. A patio area also offers space for outside seating, where you can sit and relax while taking in your surroundings. You can really envisage those warm summer evenings dining al fresco.

The County town of Carmarthen lays claim to being the oldest town in Wales, boasting a strong Roman heritage dating back to AD c75. Situated on the River Towy eight miles north of Carmarthen Bay, the town is the location of the headquarters of Dyfed Powys Police, University of South Wales, Trinity Saint David and The West Wales General Hospital. The town is well served by numerous primary schools and two secondary schools offering education through the medium of Welsh and English. The heart of the town has undergone massive regeneration and is home to a shopping centre, a Cinema complex, restaurants, bars and a multi-storey car park. The town is also served by direct trains from West Wales to London.
