A rare opportunity to acquire not one but two unique character properties, both offering brilliant income potential. The stylish converted Chapel and Vestry have been lovingly converted into stylish homes, while retaining many original character features. The properties would be ideal for a multi-generational family or for those looking to run a holiday let business from home. Situated in a lovely semi-rural countryside setting, the property is also just a short drive away from Whitland and St Clears where further amenities are available. Viewing is highly recommended!

Bwlchgwynt Chapel:

Entering the property through a vestibule which offers a great place to store coats and boots after your lovely country walks, a door opens into an entrance area. Currently utilised as a study space, it also houses the stairwell leading to the mezzanine level. The ground floor has been designed with modern living in mind and boasts an impressive open plan living design, while retaining many features from the Original Chapel including arch stain glass windows, mezzanine banister, and character chapel doors. The versatile space currently accommodates; a utility/storage room, a downstairs bathroom with a freestanding roll top bath tub and walk in waterfall shower, living/dining area and the contemporary kitchen fitted with a range of appliances. A log burner is located at the centre, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere throughout. Newly installed patio doors provided easy access to the garden, and provide ample natural light. The first floor provides, a double bedroom, a second double bedroom currently utilised as a dressing room, and a w/c.

Externally, a cast iron gate opens into the entrance courtyard which also houses a wooden shed, and provides access to the graveyard at the rear also owned by the property. Bwlchgwynt Chapel has private use of a side lawned garden, which provides a great space for outside seating and can also be accessed via a secondary cast iron gate from the lane. Both The Chapel and Vestry off road parking for up to four vehicles.

Vestry:

The Vestry is currently run as a well established holiday let, offering a great additional stream of income. Featuring an upside down style design, the property has been tastefully decorated throughout. The ground floor benefits from underfloor heating and accommodates; the double bedroom with gorgeous exposed stone walls. Double glass doors open into the impressive en-suite bathroom with roll top bath rub and waterfall shower. A staircase leads up to the first floor which is home to the open kitchen/living/diner, and can also be accessed externally via a side entrance. This open plan space features exposed A frame beams, stonework and a log burning stove. The shaker style kitchen has been thoughtfully designed and is fitted with a Belfast sink, solid wood worktops and a range of integrated appliances.

Whitland is a charming town located approximately 15 miles west of Carmarthen, bordering the River Taf and the county of Pembrokeshire. The town benefits from excellent transport links, including a railway station with direct routes to London, the North, and regional destinations. Local amenities include two schools, a Post Office, shops, three pubs, a café, and a popular restaurant just outside the town. Whitland is also home to the Hywel Dda Interpretive Centre and is surrounded by scenic walking trails, including those leading to Whitland Abbey and along the historic Landsker Line.

DIRECTIONS

From the St Clears Roundabout take to A477 towards the Red Roses bypass. Turn left into the village of Llanddowror, and then turn right onto Brandy Hill Road. Continue up lane passing over the bypass. Follow lane until reaching a right hand turn sign posted Ciffig Church. Follow the road around to the left and continue up lane. You will find the property on the left hand side. What/Three/Words:///mindset.narrates.radically
