The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

This beautifully presented two double bedroom semi-detached house is on the former Plas Ystrad Mansion site and situated on the outskirts of the popular village of Johnstown. The house would appeal to so many whether you are looking for an investment, taking the first steps on the housing ladder or looking for a property to grow your family this house has it all.

The ground floor offers open-plan lounge with a study area under the stairs, dining room and kitchen area, perfect for entertaining or simply enjoying everyday family life. On the first floor there are two double bedrooms and the family bathroom, with shower over bath. The property also has an added bonus of a private storage room located below, with own access. The property is in a courtyard setting formerly part of Plas Ystrad Mansion, with well-maintained communal gardens leading to Ystrad woods. There is also allocated brick paved parking.

The County town of Carmarthen lays claim to being the oldest town in Wales, boasting a strong Roman heritage dating back to AD c75. Situated on the River Towy eight miles north of its mouth at Carmarthen Bay, the town is the location of the headquarters of Dyfed Powys Police, the Carmarthen Campus of The University of Wales, Trinity Saint David and The West Wales General Hospital. The town is well served by numerous primary schools and two secondary schools offering education through the medium of Welsh and English. The former cattle market in the heart of the town has undergone massive regeneration and the new shopping centre now houses most high street names, a Cinema complex, restaurants, bars and a multi storey car park. The town is also served by direct trains from West Wales to London.
