The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

A brilliant opportunity to acquire a substantial detached house, situated in the desirable village setting of Peniel. The well presented home has been lovingly updated by the current vendors, and boasts a stylish decor throughout. Set within approximately a quarter of an acre of gardens, the property would make a fantastic family home. Viewing is highly recommended!

Upon entering the property, you are greeted by a warm and welcoming atmosphere. The ground floor accommodation comprises; entrance hall, the living room featuring a log burning stove and leads through into the kitchen/diner. The contemporary kitchen is fitted with a range of modern appliances, and provides access into the rear porch. This space is ideal for storing coats and boots, and opens into the downstairs shower room and utility area. A versatile second reception room offers a great space to relax with family and friends, and could also double up as a guest room or study. The first floor is set of a split level landing and provides; a modern family bathroom, three double bedrooms, and a fourth single bedroom which is currently utilised as a nursery. The property benefits from a stylish neutral decor throughout, and is fitted with UPVC double glazing and has oil central heating.

Externally, the property is situated in approximately a quarter of an acre plot. A driveway is situated to the front of the property, which provides ample driveway parking. Additional on street parking is also available on the no through road. The garden wraps around the property and is home to a variety of plants, shrubs and mature apple trees. A patio area provides space for outside seating, ideal for BBQ's and entertaining your family and friends in the summer. The County town of Carmarthen lays claim to being the oldest town in Wales, boasting a strong Roman heritage dating back to AD c75. Situated on the River Towy eight miles north of its mouth at Carmarthen Bay, the town is the location of the headquarters of Dyfed Powys Police, the Carmarthen Campus of The University of Wales, Trinity Saint David and The West Wales General Hospital. The town is well served by numerous primary schools and two secondary schools offering education through the medium of Welsh and English. The former cattle market in the heart of the town has undergone massive regeneration and the new shopping centre now houses most high street names, an Apollo Cinema complex, restaurants, bars and a multi storey car park. The town is also served by direct inter city trains from West Wales to London.
