The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

A detached bungalow situated in the popular area of Johnstown, conveniently located on the outskirts of Carmarthen town, within walking distance to schools and amenities. This would make a great retirement property or first time buy.

The accommodation briefly comprises; entrance hallway leading onto the living room. The dining room can be found between the living room and the kitchen. Along the hallway there is the bathroom as well as three bedrooms, with bedroom two leading out into the conservatory.

Externally, the property has a lawned front garden with driveway leading to the garage. Paved side access takes you to rear garden complete with shed. The rear garden has a water feature and stepping stones to the shed along with patio areas and lawn.

The County town of Carmarthen lays claim to being the oldest town in Wales, boasting a strong Roman heritage dating back to AD c75. Situated on the River Towy eight miles north of its mouth at Carmarthen Bay, the town is the location of the headquarters of Dyfed Powys Police, the Carmarthen Campus of The University of Wales, Trinity Saint David and The West Wales General Hospital. The town is well served by numerous primary schools and two secondary schools offering education through the medium of Welsh and English. The former cattle market in the heart of the town has undergone massive regeneration and the new shopping centre now houses most high street names, a Vue Cinema complex, restaurants, bars, and a multi-storey car park. The town is also served by direct intercity trains from West Wales to London.
