The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

Ballakyle is a beautifully presented detached three bedroom bungalow that offers deceptively spacious accommodation. The property is positioned on a good size plot and benefits from partial rural views, a garage/workshop and ample driveway parking. The property is situated in the popular village of Templeton and within easy access to the bustling town of Narberth and short drive to the local beaches. Early viewing is highly recommended to appreciate this delightful home that briefly comprises: Entrance hallway, lounge, kitchen/diner, three bedrooms (Master en-suite) and bathroom. The garden is nicely maintained and mainly enclosed.

LOCATION:
Narberth or Arberth in Welsh plays a high profile in Welsh mythology. The former town hall still houses the cell where those involved in the Rebecca Riots were imprisoned. To learn more about the history of Narberth visit its brilliant museum. It is also home to several sporting teams, including Narberth RFC who currently play in the Welsh Championship and Narberth Football and Cricket club. Narberth is full to the brim with independent shops including craft and art galleries, bars and restaurants and boutiques. The town has everything you can need with health, dental, fitness and community centres and a Museum. Narberth is twinned with Ludlow and both towns celebrate an annual food festival which takes place on the fourth weekend of September every year. There is a regular bus service running to Haverfordwest, Carmarthen and the outlying villages and a railway station.
