The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

A truly charming period home, believed to have been built in 1908, showcasing an abundance of original features and timeless character. Highlights include a striking staircase, original doors, fireplaces, and decorative plaster corbels. Ideally situated in the heart of Cardigan, the property enjoys a highly convenient location within easy walking distance of the town centre, local shops, and a wide range of everyday amenities. Directly opposite, there is an excellent selection of recreational facilities, including tennis and basketball courts, a rugby and football pitch, and a children's play park—making this an especially appealing setting for families and those who enjoy an active lifestyle. This impressive home offers generous living space, with two reception rooms and five well-proportioned double bedrooms, making it ideal for family living.

The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance porch with decorative wall tiles and a glazed door leading into a welcoming entrance hallway. From here, a staircase rises to the first floor, while a door to the right opens into the main living room, measuring 14'3" x 13'9". This bright room features a bay window to the front, an additional window overlooking the rear patio, and a charming feature fireplace with open fire. Further along the hallway is a cosy sitting room, again benefitting from a feature fireplace and providing access to useful understairs storage. A door from here leads into the kitchen, which is fitted with a range of matching wall and base units, along with a useful cupboard housing the washing machine and tumble dryer.

The kitchen also features a central island with an integrated oven and gas hob, complete with an extractor fan above. There is ample space for a dining table, and double-glazed doors open out onto the patio, allowing natural light to flood the space.

The staircase rises to the first floor, where there are three double bedrooms, including a master bedroom that benefits from a balcony overlooking the rear—an ideal spot to relax and enjoy a morning coffee. This floor is further complemented by a shower room and a separate family bathroom, offering convenience for busy households. A further staircase leads to the second floor, where there are two additional double bedrooms, both bright and airy with an abundance of natural light.

Externally, the property is set behind a front garden, featuring a variety of mature shrubs, with off-road parking to the right-hand side for one vehicle. The enclosed rear garden can be accessed via a side gate or directly from the kitchen. It offers a paved patio area, perfect for outdoor dining, with a step down leading to a well-maintained lawn bordered by a flower bed to one side. To the rear corner, there is a useful block-built outbuilding, providing additional storage space. The garden offers a great space to sit, relax and enjoy! Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate what this property has to offer.
