The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

A well presented and cosy timber chalet situated within Penlan Holiday Village, set in an approximately 24-acre landscaped holiday park on the outskirts of the rural village of Cenarth, famous for its picturesque waterfalls. The popular market town of Newcastle Emlyn is approximately 4 miles away.

The chalet provides a welcoming home-from-home and is well presented throughout. On entering, you are greeted by a well-equipped kitchen fitted with a range of practical units. A door leads through to the comfortable living and dining area, where a dedicated breakfast bar has been thoughtfully created alongside the dining space to house the toaster, kettle and coffee machine, leaving the main kitchen area uncluttered. This provides a relaxed and sociable setting in which to unwind and enjoy time with family and friends. The accommodation is completed by three bedrooms, including two comfortable doubles with windows overlooking the front of the chalet, together with a shower room. The single bedroom has previously been used as a dedicated writer's room, providing a peaceful and inspiring setting where published authors have enjoyed the tranquillity and space for their creativity to flourish.

Externally, the chalet enjoys a decked seating area to the front, overlooking a pleasant lawn — the perfect spot for enjoying the landscaped surroundings, relaxing with a morning coffee or outdoor dining. Beneath the chalet, there is a great storage area, providing a great space to store outdoor equipment and holiday essentials.

Please note permanent living is NOT permissible on this site. The site closes between 1st January and 28th February each year. The Chalet is also exempt from second home council tax.
