The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

A contemporary home thoughtfully designed by local architect Tom Kinver, nestled in the charming coastal village of Goodwick. Within easy reach of local shops and amenities, and only 1.5 miles from the seaside town of Fishguard. Beautifully presented throughout, the accommodation features three double bedrooms, off-road parking, and a delightful terraced garden to the rear.

The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hallway, featuring a window above the door that extends onto the roof, flooding the space with natural light. There is a convenient storage cupboard and a door leading into the main living area. The living room is bright and inviting, with glass doors that open onto the front garden, creating a seamless connection between indoors and out. Double doors lead into the open-plan kitchen and dining area, where the kitchen is fitted with matching wall and base units, integrated appliances, and patio doors providing direct access to the rear of the property. Additionally, there is a utility room with fitted units and a ground-floor shower room.

The staircase leads to the first floor, here there are three double bedrooms, including a master bedroom with a private balcony offering stunning sea and countryside views—a perfect spot to relax and take in the surroundings. The first floor also features a family bathroom and convenient storage cupboards within the hallway.

Externally, the property offers off-road parking for approximately three vehicles at the front, with steps leading up to a front patio. To the rear, accessed via the side of the property, the terraced garden is beautifully landscaped with mature shrubs and flower beds. Multiple seating areas provide the perfect spots to relax, with views that become better the higher you go.

There is a regular bus service to nearby Fishguard, a popular market town and ferry port on the Pembrokeshire coastline. There is a wide variety of shops, restaurants, schools, and a leisure centre in the town. Fishguard Harbour is the ferry terminal to Southern Ireland and has a train station that offers further transport links to the east. Goodwick Sands provides a safe beach for families, with other coves and beaches such as Pwllgwaelod, Cwm yr Eglwys, Abercastle, etc all within easy driving distance.
