The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

A semi-detached house situated in the village of Clynderwen, conveniently positioned for local amenities and within walking distance of the railway station. The property benefits from three reception rooms, four bedrooms, and a garage/workshop.

The property is entered into the hallway, from here, a door to the right leads into the living room, which features a character fireplace with an open fire, creating a cosy and inviting space. Also accessed from the hallway is the dining room, again benefiting from a feature fireplace and open fire. Towards the rear of the property is a further reception room, offering excellent versatility and currently featuring a Rayburn, a door from here provides access to the side porch. The porch offers useful additional space with room for seating, storage or similar, together with convenient access to the side of the property. The kitchen, is fitted with a range of matching wall and base units and benefits from a skylight providing additional natural light. A glazed door leads directly out to the rear garden.

The staircase rises from the hallway to the first floor, where the accommodation is arranged over a split-level landing. The first bedroom is situated on the initial level and benefits from an en-suite bathroom. A few further steps lead to the remainder of the landing, where there are three further bedrooms comprising two doubles and a single.

Externally, the front of the property benefits from an enclosed courtyard area, bordered by a wall with railings above. The rear garden can be accessed directly from the kitchen or via a gate to the side of the house. Immediately outside the kitchen is a small patio area, with a couple of steps leading up to the garden, which is predominantly laid to lawn. There is also a useful wooden shed, while there are also sizeable vegetable and flower beds, offering plenty of scope for keen gardeners. The property also benefits from a garage/workshop with power and lighting, providing useful storage and workspace.

Clynderwen is a beautiful village nestled in Pembrokeshire close to the famous Preseli Mountains. Clynderwen is served by a railway network line going from Fishguard Harbour to London Paddington together with a regular bus service and major roads. The village is also served by a convenience store, chemist and hardware store Clynderwen's nearest major town is Narberth, the cosmopolitan town providing ample shopping facilities as well as entertainment and nightlife.

DIRECTIONS

From Cardigan town centre, head towards Chancery Lane and continue onto Pendre. Turn right onto Feidrfa, then left onto Finch's Square, continuing onto Pont-Y-Cleifion. At the roundabout, take the third exit onto the A487. At the next roundabout, take the first exit onto the A478 and continue along this road for approximately 18 miles. The property will then be located on the right-hand side. What three words -
