FOR SALE BY AUCTION

Formerly operated as a public house with living accommodation above, this prominently located property in the centre of Fishguard offers an excellent opportunity for owner-occupiers, investors, or those seeking to re-establish a hospitality business. The property also lends itself to alternative uses, such as a cafe, retail unit, or residential conversion, subject to the necessary planning consents.

The ground floor comprises an entrance porch leading into a bar and dining area, with half wood panelled walls, and a feature fireplace and log burning stove. To the rear is a kitchenette with storage and sink, together with access to the rear outdoor space. Separate male and female WCs are also provided.

A staircase leads to the first floor, which offers living accommodation. This includes a bright living room with dual-aspect windows, a fitted kitchen with a range of wall and base units opening into a dining room, three bedrooms, two of which are doubles and a bathroom comprising WC, wash basin, and bath with shower over.

Externally the property has a small, low maintenance, enclosed courtyard seating area, with access to a wooden storage shed.

Fishguard is a popular market town and ferry port on the Pembrokeshire coastline. There is a wide variety of shops, restaurants, secondary school, junior schools, library and leisure centre in the town centre. Fishguard Harbour is the ferry terminal to Southern Ireland, the train station offers excellent communication links. Goodwick Sands provides a safe beach for families, with other coves and beaches such as Pwllgwaelod, Cwm yr Eglwys, Abercastle, etc all within easy driving distance.

DIRECTIONS

From our Fishguard Office, turn right. At the mini roundabout, take the first exit towards Lower Fishguard. Take the first right turning. The property will be found a little while ahead on the right hand side. What 3 Words: ///elated.butternut.nagging
