The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

A great opportunity to acquire a detached two bedroom bungalow, situated in the highly desirable area of Begally, Kilgetty. Although in need of some updating the property is ideal for first time buyers or even would make a brilliant investment property. Centrally positioned within a well appointed plot, the property offers endless potential. Ideal for extension if required (subject to the necessary planning and building regulations), viewing is highly recommended!

The accommodation briefly comprises: entrance hallway, lounge with gas fire, kitchen, two double bedrooms, and a family bathroom. The property benefits from UPVC double glazing and has gas central heating.

Externally, there is ample off road parking, with further on street parking available. Both the front and rear offer low-maintenance gardens, and is home to a studio/summer house.

Winrose benefits from no onward chain and is located close to everyday amenities and necessities and a short drive to local beaches such as Tenby and Saundersfoot.

Kilgetty/Begally is a sought after area north of Saundersfoot. The village boasts shops, garage, pub and restaurant. The village is five miles from the cosmopolitan town of Narberth and has various attractions within short distance including Bluestone, Folly Farm and Oakwood Theme park. Kilgetty/Begally is within three miles of the famous beaches of Saundersfoot and Tenby. Local bus services run between Kilgetty and the surrounding area. There are a choice of schools in the local area providing choice for your children's education. For more information visit www.visitpembrokeshire.com

DIRECTIONS

From Narberth take the A478 towards Tenby passing through Templeton and into Begally. At the Begally roundabout take the third exit onto New Road, passing The Begally Arms on your left, pass the turning on the left for The Grove. Winrose can be found immediately after on the left hand side.
