The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

Giltar View is a charming semi-detached cottage occupying an elevated position and enjoying delightful views over the golf course, the sea and towards Caldey Island beyond.

Offering an ideal holiday home or 'lock up and leave' property, the accommodation is arranged in an upside-down configuration to make the most of its enviable outlook. The layout briefly comprises an entrance hall leading to the principal bedroom with en-suite bathroom, together with a further double bedroom featuring an attractive glass block wall, allowing borrowed light from the hallway.

To the first floor, there is a shower room and an open-plan living/dining area with fitted kitchen, creating a sociable and comfortable living space from which to enjoy the surrounding views.

The property further benefits from double glazing throughout. Externally, a driveway to the front provides off-road parking and leads to a low-maintenance patio garden, perfect for relaxing and enjoying the coastal setting.

Viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the location, views and lifestyle opportunity that Giltar View has to offer.

Penally lies just over a mile from Tenby in the county of Pembrokeshire, South West Wales. The charming village has easy access to the sea, making it a popular spot with visitors, and there are spectacular views from the village towards Caldey Island, Giltar Point and Tenby. In the heart of the village you will find Penally Abbey a luxurious Hotel and Restaurant that boasts historic charm and an experience of elegance.

DIRECTIONS

Leaving the Tenby office follow signs for Penally on the A4139. At The petrol station, turn right and follow the road through to the centre of the village. When you reach the pub on the right hand side, turn right up Strawberry Lane, where the property will be found on your left hand side. What3Words:///leotard.crows.steams
