The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

Proudly situated in an elevated position over-looking the coast at Pendine, Claradine House boasts gorgeous sea views across the bay. Dating back to around Circa 1790- 1820, the detached period property has a wealth of character features throughout. Offering versatile accommodation for all the family, the property is ideal for a growing family, multi-generational living or simply an fantastic holiday home. Within walking distance to the seafront and the various amenities the coastal village has to offer, the property would also offers great income potential. Viewing is highly recommended!

Upon entering the property into the grand entrance hallway with the original tiled flooring and staircase, a door opens into a storage area and downstairs w/c. Off the hall is the living room/dining, which has been layed with hardwood flooring throughout. The impressive reception room features a log burning stove, and exposed stone work. At the heart of the home is the open plan, kitchen/utility and sitting area. The modern kitchen is fitted with solid wood worktops and boasts an island in the centre which offers further casual dining. The cosy sitting area provides and warm and welcoming atmosphere, perfect for relaxing with family and friends. A pantry is located behind the fireplace, ideal for further storage. The first floor is set over a split level landing and accommodates; the family bathroom/utility room, a second family shower room, the master bedroom with en-suite bathroom and two further double bedrooms. A snug area on the landing would also make a great study, and also boasts those idyllic sea views. The second floor has been converted into three further bedrooms, which all feature exposed A frame beams and ample natural light. The property benefits from a cellar, sash double glazing and has oil central heating.

Externally, there is a small courtyard area to the rear which can also be accessed off the sitting room. A lawned garden is located to the front, which provides a great space for outside seating, where you can relax and take in your surroundings. There is ample parking available directly opposite the property.

Situated on the edge of the Carmarthenshire, Pembrokeshire border in West Wales, Pendine boasts a 7 mile beach stretching from Gilmore Point to Laugharne Sands where Malcolm Campbell and J.G. Parry-Thomas set the world land speed record five times between 1924 and 1927. The 870 miles coastal path runs mostly along the clifftops for 4 miles from Pendine, offering glorious views towards both the Gower Peninsula and Tenby and Caldey Island, before reaching the beautiful cove of Amroth and the border with Pembrokeshire.
