Nestled in the tranquil surroundings off of Sutton Road, Langley, Maidstone, this charming four-bedroom cottage offers a delightful blend of modern living and rustic charm. The property has been thoughtfully converted from a barn, providing an exceptionally spacious interior that is perfect for families or those seeking a serene retreat.

Upon entering, you will find two inviting reception rooms that create a warm and welcoming atmosphere, ideal for both relaxation and entertaining. The generous layout allows for a seamless flow between spaces, ensuring that every corner of the home feels open and airy.

The cottage boasts four well-proportioned bedrooms, providing ample space for rest and privacy. With three bathrooms, including en-suite facilities, the property caters to the needs of a busy household, ensuring convenience and comfort for all residents.

One of the standout features of this property is its private garden, a perfect oasis for enjoying the outdoors. Whether you wish to host summer barbecues, cultivate a garden, or simply unwind in a peaceful setting, this outdoor space offers endless possibilities.

Located in a quiet and peaceful area, this property is an ideal choice for those looking to escape the hustle and bustle of town life while still being within easy reach of local amenities. This property truly represents a unique opportunity to enjoy spacious living in a picturesque setting. Don't miss the chance to make this delightful cottage your new home.

Terms for Holding Fee

Holding Fees & Deposit

The holding fee will be equivalent of one week's rent which will reserve the property for you whilst the referencing checks and preparation for the tenancy agreement are being undertaken.

This is worked out as follows:

Monthly rent x 12 (months in a year) divided by 52 (the number of weeks in a year) = Amount of Holding Deposit to be paid by the applicant

This will be protected through membership of a client money protection scheme.

Your holding fee will be deducted from your first month's rent on the day you come to sign the tenancy agreement and collect the keys to your new home. The holding fee will also be returned to the applicant within 7 days if the Landlord or agent choose to withdraw from the proposed agreement.

Coles Group have the right to retain your holding fee for the following reasons:

- The applicant provides false or misleading information
- The applicant fails a Right to Rent Check
- The applicant withdraws from a property

If Coles Group do retain the applicants holding fee they will set out in writing (via email or letter sent to their current address stated on the application form)

why they are retaining the applicants holding fee within 7 days of deciding not to let the property to them or within 7 days of the "deadline for agreement" passing.

Coles Group will provide a copy of a blank tenancy agreement with the application form. If you require this to be resent, it is the applicant's responsibility to contact Coles Group for this.

The applicant and Landlord will usually have until the 15th day after the holding deposit has been received to sign the new Tenancy Agreement for the property applied for, known as the 'deadline for agreement'. However, this may be different depending on when the property will be ready or when the applicant would prefer to move. Coles Group will provide in writing when the proposed tenancy can be taken. This could be more or less than the 14 days outlined in the 'deadline for agreement.' Coles Group accept no responsibility if the applicant has not been able to collect all of the relevant references in order to pass the necessary checks within the agreed time. Without the required references, Coles Group will not be able to enter into a tenancy agreement until the checks have been satisfied.

If you have any questions regarding the application form, the applicant is to contact Coles Group before returning the completed application form and paying their holding fee.

Deposit:

A dilapidations deposit equivalent to 5 weeks rent is payable at the start of your tenancy (unless advised otherwise). The dilapidations deposit will either be held by Coles Group and registered with the Tenancy Dispute Service or in instances where we do not manage the property, the deposit will be held by the Landlord and registered in a Government approved scheme.

Please read carefully:

Upon the completion of my referencing I (the prospective tenant) agree for my Holding Deposit to be converted and contributed into my first months rent in advance.
