Occupying part of the magnificent Grade II Listed Hayle Place Manor House, this exceptional two-bedroom apartment offers an outstanding combination of historic charm, generous proportions and a countryside setting.

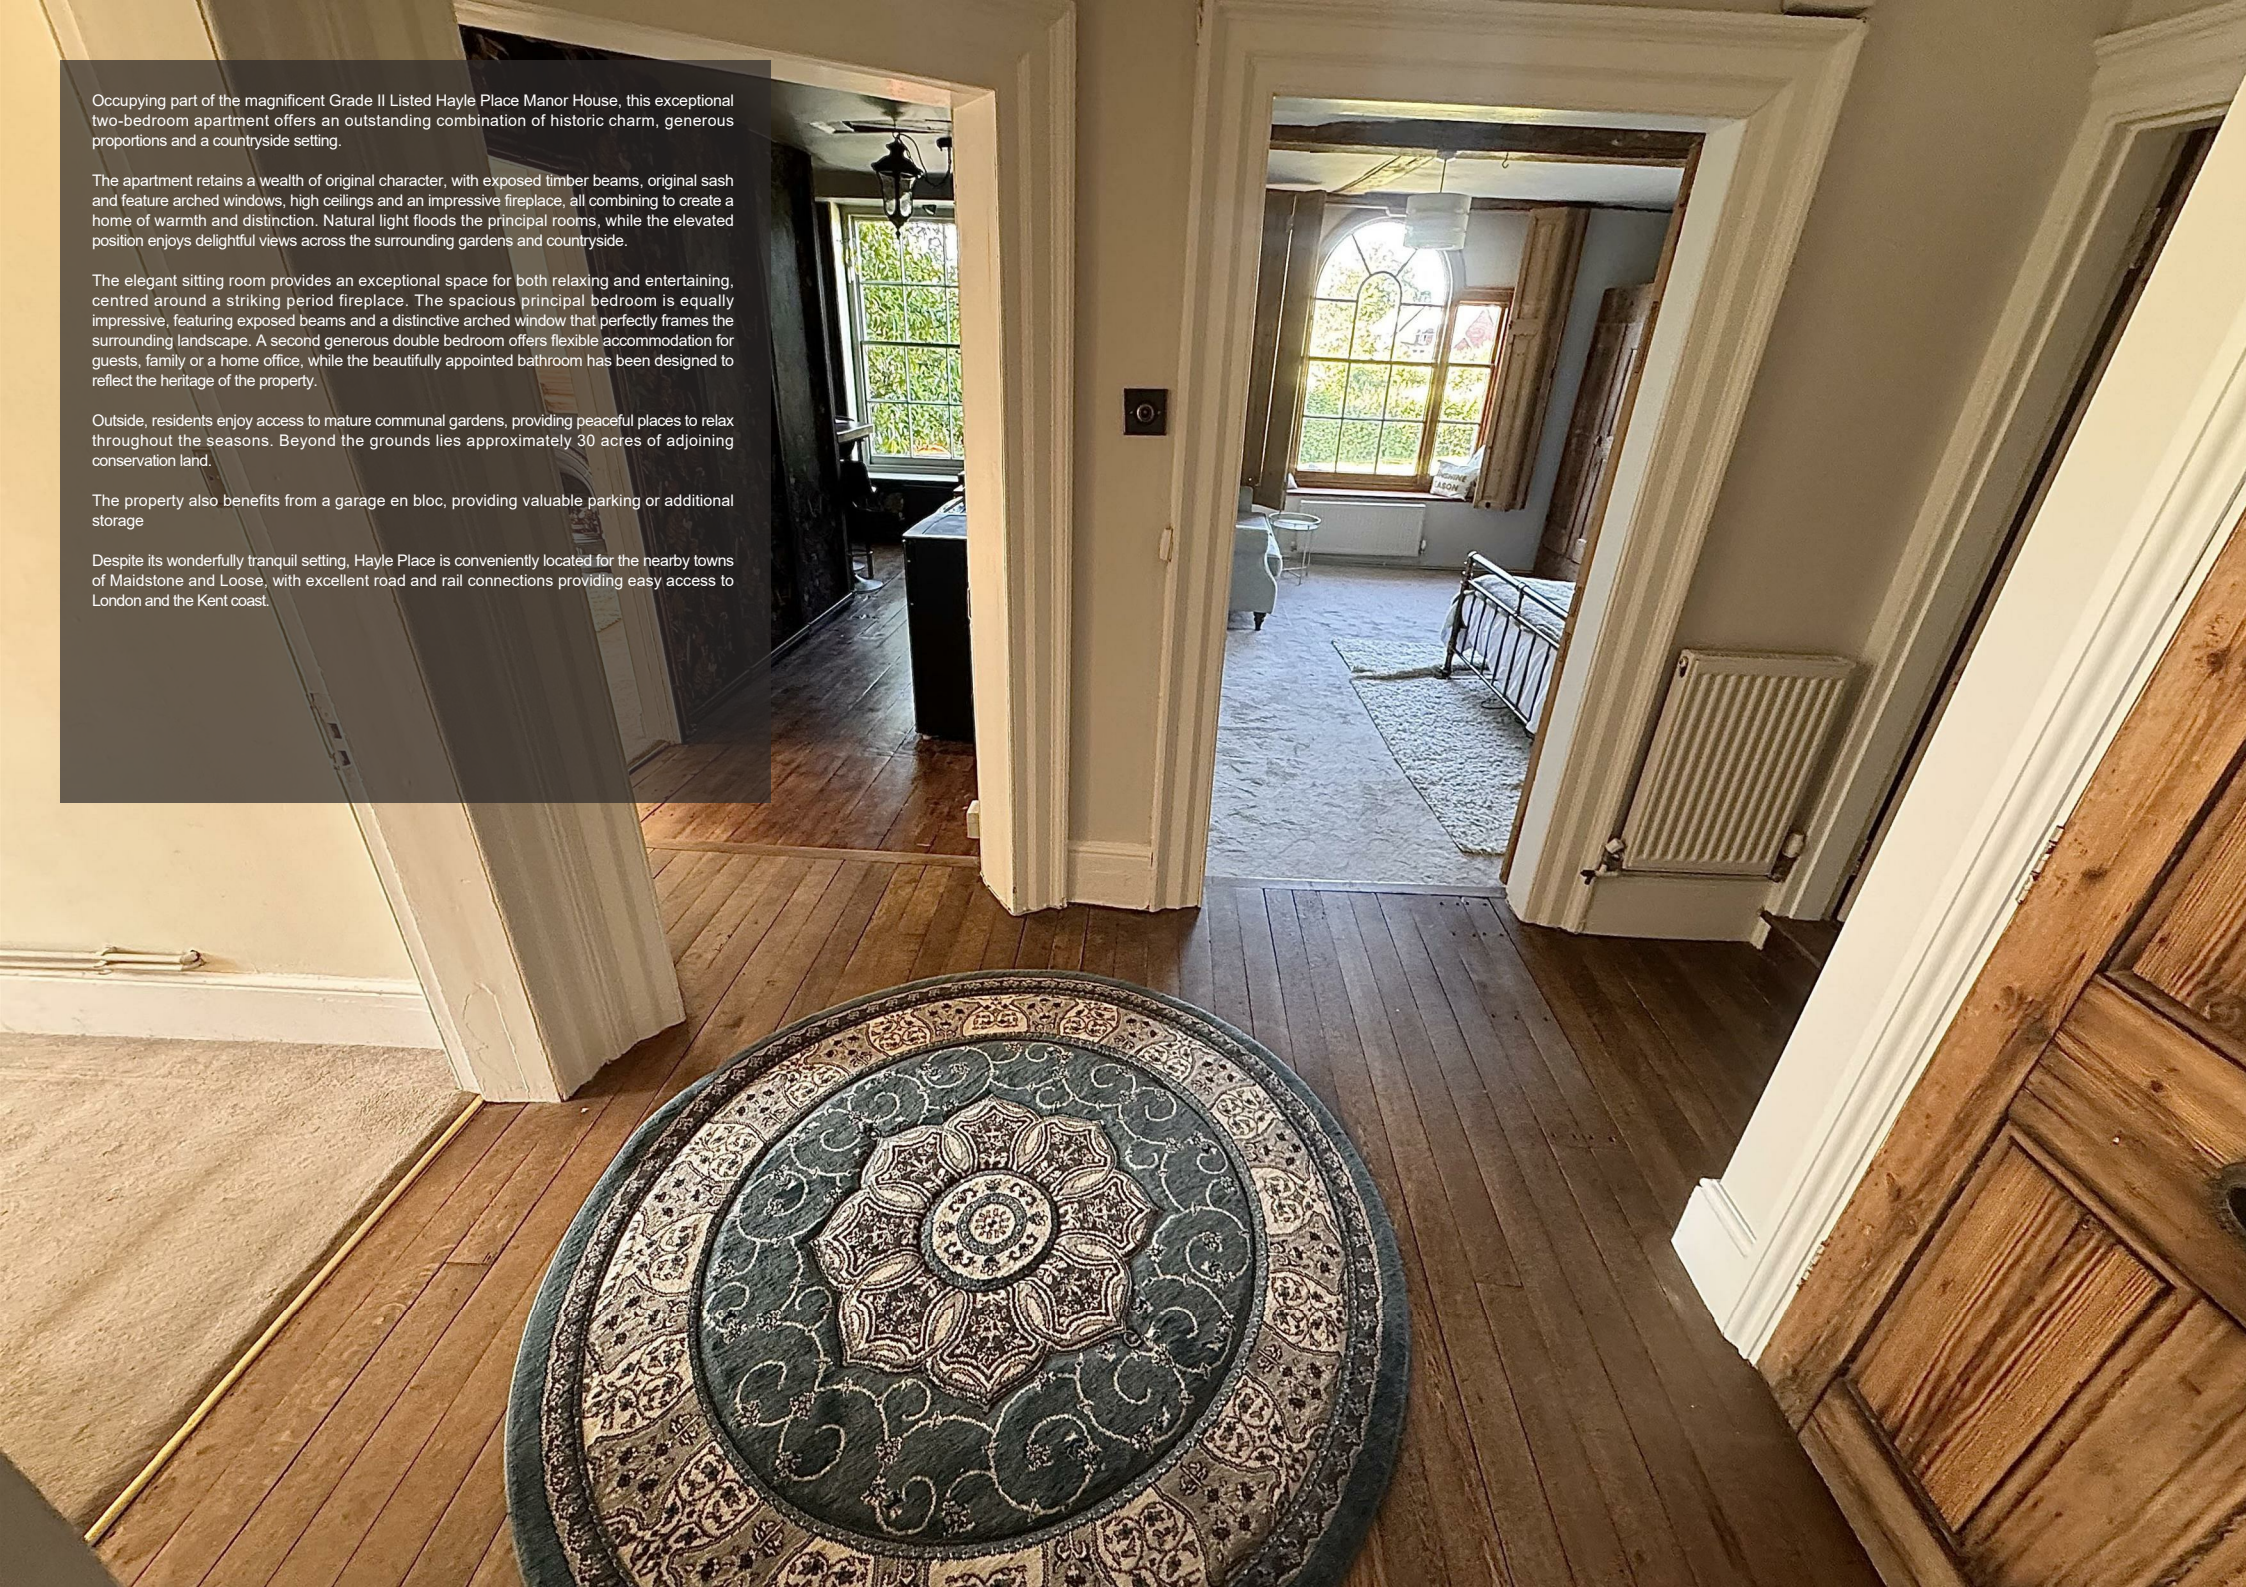

The apartment retains a wealth of original character, with exposed timber beams, original sash and feature arched windows, high ceilings and an impressive fireplace, all combining to create a home of warmth and distinction. Natural light floods the principal rooms, while the elevated position enjoys delightful views across the surrounding gardens and countryside.

The elegant sitting room provides an exceptional space for both relaxing and entertaining, centred around a striking period fireplace. The spacious principal bedroom is equally impressive, featuring exposed beams and a distinctive arched window that perfectly frames the surrounding landscape. A second generous double bedroom offers flexible accommodation for guests, family or a home office, while the beautifully appointed bathroom has been designed to reflect the heritage of the property.

Outside, residents enjoy access to mature communal gardens, providing peaceful places to relax throughout the seasons. Beyond the grounds lies approximately 30 acres of adjoining conservation land.

The property also benefits from a garage en bloc, providing valuable parking or additional storage.

Despite its wonderfully tranquil setting, Hayle Place is conveniently located for the nearby towns of Maidstone and Loose, with excellent road and rail connections providing easy access to London and the Kent coast.
