Property Summary

Perfectly positioned in a quiet cul-de-sac on the ever-popular Harrier Drive, this well-presented two-bedroom terraced home offers an ideal opportunity for first-time buyers or investors alike.

Property Overview

Step through the front porch and you're welcomed by a bright hallway, with the bathroom conveniently located to your left, and the stairs ahead leading to the first floor. Straight ahead is the lounge—a comfortable, neutral space ideal for relaxing—flowing seamlessly into a dedicated dining area that benefits from direct views of the garden. The kitchen is tucked to one side, offering wraparound worktops, ample storage, and easy access to outdoor entertaining.

Upstairs you'll find two bedrooms: a well-proportioned double, and a slightly irregular-shaped second room that provides versatile space—perfect for a child's bedroom, home office, or creative studio setup with a bed, wardrobe, and play nook.

Outside, the rear garden is generous and well-balanced, featuring both a decked area for seating and a lawned section for play or planting—a blank canvas for green-fingered buyers or those who love to host.

The home is presented in good condition throughout, meaning you can move straight in, personalise at your own pace, or let it out with minimal fuss. Located just a short distance from local schools, shops, and commuter links, it strikes a great balance between comfort, convenience, and potential.

About The Area

Located on a peaceful residential street in south Sittingbourne, Harrier Drive sits within easy reach of everything a modern buyer could need. Families will appreciate being within walking distance of Canterbury Road Primary School (approx. 0.4 miles) and Highsted Grammar School (around 0.8 miles), both well-regarded for their academic performance. For commuters, Sittingbourne train station is just over a mile away, offering regular services to London Victoria, St Pancras, and the Kent coast. Local shops, cafés, and supermarkets are easily accessible, including a nearby Co-op and Morrisons. The town centre offers a full range of amenities, from high-street names to leisure facilities, while nearby Milton Creek Country Park and various play areas provide green space for weekend strolls and family time. With excellent road links via the A2 and A249 just minutes away, this area strikes the perfect balance between peaceful living and practical connectivity.
