Property Summary

If you're searching for a home that combines comfort, practicality, and space in a tranquil seaside location, this two-bedroom, two-bathroom semi-detached house could be just the right fit. Beautifully maintained and tucked away at the rear of the development with private off-street parking and a garage, it offers a peaceful lifestyle just moments from local shops, transport, and the coast.

Property Overview

On arrival, you're greeted by a generously sized entrance hallway, with a handy storage cupboard and a ground floor family bathroom for added convenience. To your right is a bright and inviting 13' lounge, offering a comfortable retreat to unwind or entertain. On the left is a well-appointed kitchen with sliding patio doors opening out to a low-maintenance garden, complete with paving and astro turf, ideal for relaxing with minimal upkeep.

The rear garden also provides direct access to the garage, offering not only secure parking but useful extra space for hobbies, storage or workshop potential.

Upstairs, you'll find two excellent double bedrooms, both impressively proportioned at 13'4 x 12'9 and 13'4 x 14'8, providing flexibility whether for guests, grandchildren, or home working. A second bathroom completes the first floor, featuring a shower, toilet and sink, perfect for households who prefer separate facilities or visiting family.

The entire property is presented in turn-key condition, with no major works required, making it an ideal long-term downsize or right-size option with comfort and convenience in mind.

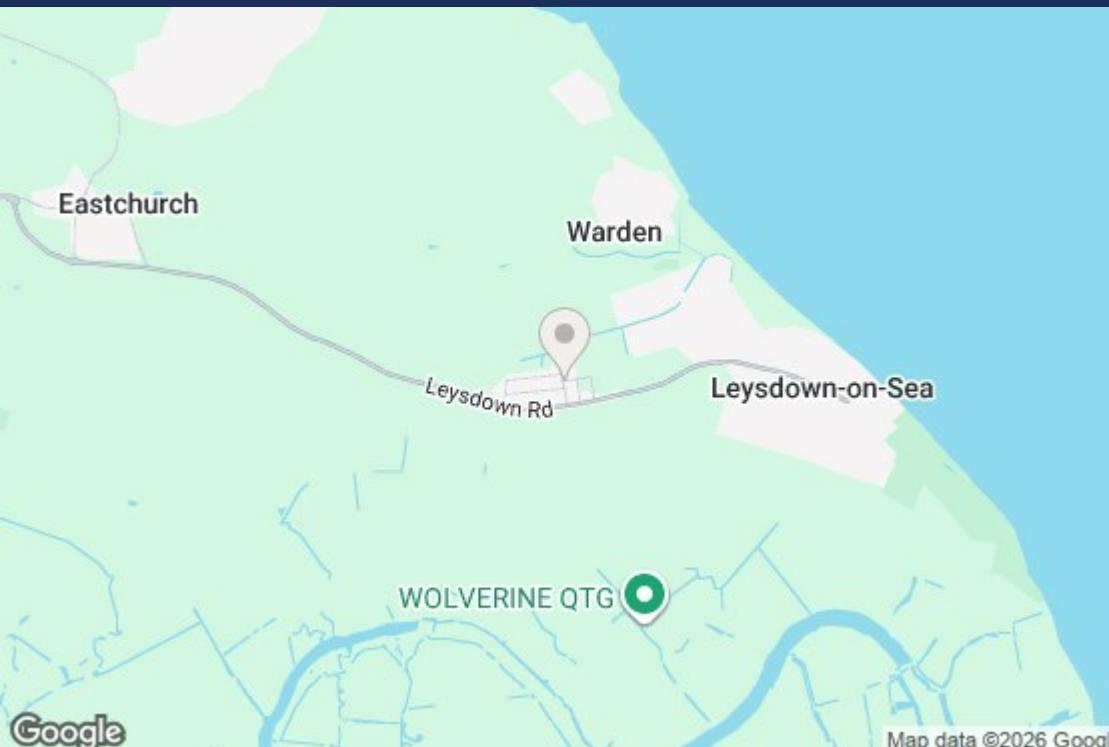

About The Area

Located on the eastern edge of the Isle of Sheppey, Leysdown-on-Sea offers a unique blend of coastal charm and countryside tranquillity, making it a particularly attractive destination for those looking to enjoy their later years in a peaceful, well-connected setting. The area has long been a favourite for retirees and those seeking a slower, more relaxed pace of life, with flat terrain ideal for walking, friendly neighbours, and a sense of community that's hard to find elsewhere.

The village itself features a traditional seafront promenade with far-reaching views over the Thames Estuary and is home to a number of long-standing local businesses, including independent cafés, fish and chip shops, convenience stores, and a pharmacy, all within walking distance. There's also a regular bus routes that connect Leysdown with Sheerness town centre and Sittingbourne, where you'll find supermarkets, banks, GP surgeries, dentists, and larger shopping centres.

Nature lovers will appreciate the nearby Elmley Nature Reserve and expansive rural landscapes surrounding the village, while beach-goers can enjoy the laid-back atmosphere of Leysdown Beach, a designated bathing area in summer months with wheelchair-friendly access points and benches along the promenade.

For those seeking spiritual or social engagement, there are local churches, community halls, and seasonal events that help foster a strong sense of belonging. And with on-island healthcare services, nearby transport links to the mainland via the Sheppey Crossing (A249), and no shortage of scenic spots to unwind, Leysdown strikes an ideal balance between rural retreat and accessible living.
