Maldon

Maldon, a historic market town in Essex, boasts a rich tapestry of history that dates back to Saxon times. Its strategic location on the River Blackwater has shaped its identity, from a significant port to a hub of local industry. Today, this heritage is beautifully preserved, offering a fascinating glimpse into the past. no visit to the district would be complete without a visit to the popular Hythe Quay, where many Thames Barges have been lovingly restored. Maldon is also famous for its delectable product, Maldon Sea Salt, which is harvested in the area and is renowned worldwide.

It's also home to the Battle of Maldon and features the oldest battlefield in Britain, adding to its historical significance. The town centre itself is a treasure trove of historic buildings, with many independent shops and eateries housed in structures that have stood for generations. St Mary's Church, with its distinctive spire, is another prominent landmark, offering a sense of continuity and architectural beauty.

Neighbouring Heybridge enjoys it's very own riverside experience, with Heybridge Basin being the start of the Chelmer & Blackwater navigation inland canal from the River Blackwater which was first used in 1793.

Maldon and Heybridge have a large range of schools which include The Plume Academy. Maldon is situated just 10 Miles from Chelmsford, 9 miles from South Woodham Ferrers, 7 Miles from Witham train station, 6 miles from Hatfield Peverel train station and 7 miles from North Fambridge train station.
