

A delightful stone-built four-bedroom property, formerly a schoolhouse, dating back to 1865, offering flexible accommodation arranged over two floors, with extensive driveway parking, electric double gates, along with a double bay carport and outbuildings in the heart of the Oxfordshire village of Bucknell.

A spacious entrance hallway leads to a light and spacious dual-aspect sitting room, which enjoys views over the garden, and boasts a wood-burning stove, making it ideal for family gatherings and cozy winter evenings alike.

The kitchen breakfast room with underfloor heating was extended and is now fitted with a generous number of units and integrated appliances. With two large windows overlooking the garden, which enjoys a south-facing aspect, the kitchen is a fabulous room for casual dining.

For those who enjoy more formal dining, the spacious dining room won't disappoint, with plenty of space for a large table and chairs, and two large windows, it would also lend itself to being utilised as a family room.

For those who work from home, there are plenty of options. A snug adjacent to the dining room, which currently offers a quiet space to enjoy a good book or to use as a tv room, would also make for a large study.

A useful utility room with plenty of storage is accessed via the kitchen, and a W.C completes the ground floor accommodation.

The first floor has four bedrooms and a family bathroom, which has both a bath and a separate shower.

The principal bedroom has an attractive vaulted ceiling, an en-suite bathroom with underfloor heating, and a walk-in wardrobe.

Outside, the delightful garden wraps around the property, with the majority of the lawned area to the front. There is plenty of room for al-fresco dining and BBQ'S whilst making the most of the southerly aspect the garden enjoys.

Mainly laid to lawn, there are also plenty of mature trees and colourful shrubs.

A large workshop adjoining the house is perfect for those with hobbies; it would also make for an ideal gym or home office, along with scope to be incorporated into the ground-floor living accommodation in this fabulous village home, subject to planning consent.

In addition to the workshop, there is a storeroom adjoining the property, a large garden shed, and a double bay carport with an adjoining store.

There is extensive driveway parking with this property, and complete privacy with the electric double gates, combined with the outbuildings, it is perfect for those who have lots of vehicles or families with hobbies.
