Occupying a pleasant position, this traditional semi-detached home offers well-proportioned accommodation throughout, combining character features with practical living space to create a comfortable and welcoming home.

Upon entering, a welcoming entrance porch leads through to the lounge, where parquet flooring and a feature fireplace with log-burning stove create a warm and inviting living space. The kitchen is fitted with a range of cream shaker-style cottage units complemented by contrasting work surfaces, providing a practical and attractive space for everyday living. Beyond, a conservatory offers additional reception space, suitable for use as a dining area, garden room, or sitting room, with direct access to the rear garden.

To the first floor, the property offers two generously sized bedrooms, with the principal bedroom benefiting from an adjoining shower area. A modern shower room serves the first floor and is fitted with contemporary fixtures and fittings.

Externally, the property enjoys a generous tarmac driveway to the front, providing ample off-road parking for several vehicles. The enclosed rear garden has been arranged for ease of maintenance and offers a pleasant outdoor space to enjoy. Paved patio areas, a covered decking area with light and power, and a summer house with light and power provide a variety of options for relaxation, hobbies, or home working. Retaining a traditional feel with plenty of character, this appealing home offers versatile accommodation both inside and out and is likely to attract a range of purchasers. Viewing is recommended to appreciate the accommodation on offer.
