A thoroughly impressive first floor apartment, in one of the most desirable positions within this award winning Extra Care Scheme within the Barton Community Health and Care Centre. Enjoying a convenient central location in one of Staffordshire's most popular villages with a wide range of amenities on your doorstep, Barton Mews is renowned for its on site facilities including restaurant, café/bar, lounge, hobby room, hair salon, laundrette, guest suite and the rare benefit of a GP surgery and health centre on the ground floor. The apartment itself boasts a bright open plan double aspect living space with a pleasant outlook and is only yards away from the first floor communal sun terrace, lift, laundrette and residents' lounge. A spacious hallway has an intercom entry system and two useful storage cupboards, the bedroom also has a built in wardrobe and a large wet room completes the internal accommodation. This incredible development is then completed with resident and guest parking, mobility scooter storage and some of the best and most helpful staff the industry has to offer.

Viewing is essential to appreciate the high standard of accommodation and the warm and welcoming community Barton Mews works hard to create.
