A rare opportunity to purchase an Edwardian delight at the heart of this popular 'South Lichfield' address within the King Edward's catchment area. Believed to have been built in 1910, this delightful family home has been lovingly restored by the current owners preserving many of the original period features and blending them with some more contemporary twists. The impressive dwelling redefines the accommodation previously expected from a property of this age and viewing is essential to fully appreciate the true extent of the 3,000 square feet of accommodation and its striking open plan living spaces. The extensive and flexible layout impresses at every turn. The elegant parquet floored hallway gives access to a stylish living room and guest cloakroom before opening in to the, simply stunning, open plan kitchen/diner/family room. The social hub of this home. Boasting a wide selection of wall and floor units and large island, with quartz worktops and a range of appliances and a utility room, the kitchen seamlessly opens in to a large dining area with two sets of bi-fold doors giving access to the rear garden and a more cosy second sitting room. The upper floors are equally impressive with a spacious open landing with study and seating area, principal bedroom with an en suite shower room, two further double bedrooms and a family bathroom. A space saving staircase then rises to two attic rooms which are used for an occasional bedroom, home office and storage room. Externally the property occupies a substantial plot with an extensive lawned south facing rear garden, private driveway parking and a storage garage.

Viewing really is essential to fully appreciate the impressive nature of this truly incredible home and its stylish presentation.
