A thoroughly impressive ground floor apartment with patio seating area in this select development of just 11 apartments in a prime central location, perfectly situated for the convenience of town centre shopping, is opposite Stowe Pool and only moments away from the Cathedral and many restaurants, cafes and bars. This ground floor apartment has just undergone a major refurbishment and is now offered for sale in a faultless modern style and benefits from an extended lease of 992 years and no onward chain. The accommodation comprises: entrance hallway with intercom entry and two storage cupboards, living/dining room with access to patio, contemporary kitchen with appliances, bedroom with fitted wardrobes and a modern bathroom. Further benefits include: recent redecoration and recarpeting, an allocated parking space and communal gardens.

Viewing is essential to appreciate the level of refurbishment, desirable position within the development and attractive central position within the City Centre.
